

XM Radio is a tremendous news and entertainment resource, as evidenced by the millions of subscribers willing to PAY for it as an alternative to the ho-hum free product offered by NAB members. NAB members need to get competitive and not seek protectionist measures from the government. Let the free market reign!